Our annual Bosses luncheon was a great success with about 60 in attendance. Our speaker was the director of the N.O. homeland security office, and his presentation concentrated on the hardships of protecting a large port city. All in attendance enjoyed the topic. The GNO chapter does this bosses luncheon each year with the intent to prove to our bosses the benefit of ARMA membership and expense.

GNO chapter concentrated its efforts on the volunteer project we encumbered at St. Marks Community Center. We held 3 volunteer days in which we met to perform document retention work on their archive files. In addition, we had a member group attend the Community Center Christmas program at which time we presented dozens of gifts for the inner city children.
